

Alden R. Ayers

Professional Experience

Twenty years working in the tank industry performing inspections of new construction, as well constructed and existing vessels.

Licenses & Certifications

PA Certified Tank Inspector
API 653 Aboveground Storage Tank Inspector
API 570 Piping Inspector
Certified Underground Tank Installer & Remover
Certified Aboveground Tank Installer & Remover
Certified Underground Tank Tester
Certified Corrosion Protection Tester & Technician
Certified Lead-based Paint Inspector/Risk Assessor
Certified by International Firecode Institute

Certified Asbestos Building Inspector
Certified Lead Abatement Supervisor
Certified Lead Paint Project Designer
Licensed Radioactive Material Handler
Certified Environmental Inspector
Certified Environmental Specialist
Certified Remediation Specialist

US DOT HM-181 & 12CF Hazardous Materials
OHS 40 hr. Waste Site Operations & Emergency Response 29 CFR 1910.120 (E)(2)
Temple University Asbestos Training Course
University of Maryland Lead Paint Training
Bucks County Community College -First Responder NFA (RuM)
West Virginia Univ. - Appalachian, Corrosion Short Course
Environmental Assessment Association
PA D.E.P. - UST Operation Inspection Training
Environmental/Safety Program Confined Space Entry & Rescue Supervisor
API 653 Inspector Training Course

Professional Organizations

American Petroleum Institute
National Lead Abatement Council
National Association of Corrosion Engineers
PA Tank Installers Association
Association of Groundwater Scientists & Engineers
American Society of Safety Engineers
Environmental Assessment Association
Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce
Wyoming County Chamber of Commerce
Kiwanis Club of Wyoming County
U.S. Chamber of Commerce
Abington Professional Business Association.